

COMRADE SURPRISED ON 72nd. BIRTHDAY

On Thursday, July 13th, a jolly party gathered at the home of Comrade J. F. Bullard, it being the occasion of his seventy-second birthday, and at the same time the anniversary of his wedding. All present enjoyed the day immensely, as Comrade Bullard has a beautiful home, with many shady nooks, where one can sit around under umbrella trees on grass softer than a velvet carpet. Brother Bullard's house fronts on the lake, where one can see across it from six to twelve miles. We saw the excursion boat Maud, crowded with passengers, about three miles off shore, and many smaller boats with pleasure-seekers taking advantage of the Thursday half-holiday.

All present enjoyed every minute of their stay, some playing croquet on the lawn, some singing and having other amusements. Mrs. Bullard, with her assistants, served an ample supply of delicious refreshments.

Mr. Bullard is past commander of this great state of Florida, and also had the honor to be one of the guards who guarded Jeff Davis and assisted in the capture of the confederate president.

This jolly crowd returned to their homes with lighter hearts, hoping to meet Brother Bullard again annually until he attains his one hundredth anniversary and the writer of this expects to be present, for one. All declared it was a day to be long remembered. One who was there—St. Cloud Tribune.
